

DECLARATION OF HOMESTEAD

LEGAL ADVICE LIMITATION:

The Recorder's Office is prohibited from giving any legal advice. It may be desirable to consult an attorney because the homestead law is technical and complex in its application.

HOW TO FILE A HOMESTEAD:

"Declaration of Homestead" forms may be obtained from stationery stores. They are not available in this office. There are many different types of homestead forms depending on each person's legal status. The homestead form should be completed, signed in front of a notary public, and recorded in the county where the property is located.

If you want to abandon a homestead, these forms are also available at stationery stores.

RECORDING FEES: (all fees are prescribed by law)
